REVIEWING PACKER HISTORY

FOUNDING — The Packers began in 1919 as a "scrub" team of former Green Bay High School stars organized by Earl L. (Curly) Lambeau, who had played at Notre Dame. A war-time plant, The Indian Packing Company, agreed to give Curly $500 for uniforms if they called their team the Packers. The Packing company folded up after World War I but the Packers are now in their 39th season of professional football.

EARLY DAYS — That first season the team won 10 games and lost only one against other teams from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fence or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise in the new national pro-football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight, and at the end of the season it had to be forefeited. This was the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundreth of an inch short of that required in the policy. Another storm late in the season when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Eskimos, however, proved the founding of the modern community corporation. A. B. Turnbull, general manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, told the Packers to play anyway. He then went out and helped organize the businessmen of Green Bay in the support of the team, and the Green Bay Football Corporation was formed.

THE IRON MAN ERA — With good financial backing, Lambeau began to pick up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who were going to turn out to be "greats." And in 1929 Green Bay won the national professional football championship. They repeated in 1930 and 1931 with a team featuring such all-time pro greats as Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny Blood, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Clarke Hinkle, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein and Hank Bruder. Many games 12 to 13 players would go for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD — Trouble flared again soon afterward. A fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict, and the insurance company went out of business. The Packers went into receivership, were just about to fold when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club. About this time a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. On his first play in professional ball against the Chicago Bears, he took a pass from Arnie Herber and went 94 yards for the only score of the game. With Herber and Cecil Isbell pitching and Hutson catching anything they threw at him despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944, and all during the Hutson era they always finished in the first division.

RONZANI REGIME — After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again went into a decline. The disastrous pro football war brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. In the midst of it Lambeau resigned to take a position as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. Then began another major reorganization and rebuilding effort with Gene Ronzani of the Bears hired as head coach. Over $125,000 was raised in a giant stock sale all over the state. Ronzani's teams improved each of the first three seasons until 1952. The Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the last weeks of the season. In 1953 the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining on the schedule. Assistant coaches Hugh Devore and Ray McLean took the team to the Pacific Coast for the final two games.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER — The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne C. Lewellen, all-time Packer great, attorney and business man, as general manager. Reaching into college ranks for a head coach was the next step in the re-building plans and Lisle W. Blackbourn, a native Wisconsinite, and Coach of Marquette University, was signed to a contract. A strict fundamentalist, an able organizer and administrator, and a coach who gets the most from his players, Blackbourn soon had the Packers playing the type of football that was appealing to the fans. In the first 10 games of the 1954 season the Packers had won four games and lost six but those six defeats were by a meager margin of 27 points. The Packers wound up the season with a record of four wins against eight defeats but all Packerland was happy over the improved play and the spectacular brand of football the Packers displayed. Blackbourn came within one vote of being named "Coach of the Year." His old contract was torn up and a new one was signed with a substantial increase. In 1955 "Liz" had the Packers in contention for the Championship until the last few games of the season. The four and eight record of last season should be greatly improved by a good draft, trades and by returning servicemen.

VERNE C. LEWELLEN — General Manager

Verne C. Lewellen

An all-time Packer great, Verne C. Lewellen, is directing the Green Bay Packers for the fourth season as its first General Manager. Lewellen was a spark plug in the backfield that saw Green Bay sweep to three straight World Championships in 1929, 1930 and 1931.

He was a fine running halfback, a great defensive player, but was particularly noted for his punting. Before joining the Packers he was an All-Conference halfback and baseball pitcher at Nebraska and after graduation tried out with the Pittsburgh Pirates as a pitcher before reporting to Green Bay in 1924.

A lawyer by profession, he was elected District Attorney of Brown County while still active in football and served two terms. He continued his law practice and entered the employ of Standard Oil Company where he was personnel supervisor and later tax supervisor.

Born in Garland, Nebraska, Lewellen is a widower and has three children, two sons and a daughter.

L. BLACKBOURN

LISLE W. BLACKBOURN
Head Coach

A successful high school coach, a successful college coach, and in the opinion of many who should know, a successful professional coach.

That's the story of Lisle "Liz" Blackbourn, who took over as the third coach in Green Bay Packer history in 1954.

His remarkable success in raising the Packer fortunes during the 1954 season is just another in a long list of master strikes of ability that has followed Blackbourn all through his coaching career.

Although the Packers finished the 1954 season with a record of four victories against eight losses, the manner in which the Packers were in practically every game down to the final gun convinced all eager Packer rooters that they had one of the finest coaches in the business.

Taking a squad that was run down in personnel, he put together a unit that lost six games while losing four during the first part of the season but those six defeats were by a mere margin of 27 points, a slight shade over three per game.

And while the Packers finished the season in fifth place, Blackbourn was almost named "coach of the year" but missed out to Cleveland Browns' Paul Brown by one vote. Last season "Liz" had the Packers in contention for the Championship until the final two games of the season.

"Liz," as everyone knows him, always was destined to be a big-time coach, although he remained at Milwaukee's Washington High School for 22 years. His record there was a little short of sensational as the Purgolds won 140 games, while losing only 30 and tying six.

Blackbourn made his break with the preps in 1948, taking over as backfield coach under Harry Stuhldreher at Wisconsin. He previously had college experience as one of the Badgers' game scouts. When the upheaval in the Badger staff left him without a job, Liz moved on to Marquette as Frank Murray's line tutor in 1949.

From that vantage point, it was an easy climb to the head coach's job when the grand old veteran, Murray, retired in 1950. In his three seasons at Marquette, Blackbourn awakened interest in the Hilltoppers (now Warriors) and his teams made themselves felt in the national football picture. In 1953 Marquette had a 6-3-1 mark, losing only to Big-Ten schools, Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan, by a total of nine points.

Although he had no experience in the National Football League, it was apparent that a man with his sound football background was a logical choice to lead the Packers back to the top.

Known as a driver and perfectionist in his high school and college days, Blackbourn had adhered to these same time tested devices, and the Packers proved it last season by liking it. The spirit all season was high and great things are expected for the future.

The wedding of Blackbourn and the Packers has provided numerous offsprings in the form of National Football League victories.

RAY "Scooter" McLEAN — Assistant Coach

RAY McLEAN

Fourteen years of professional football is the background of the Packers' backfield coach, Ray "Scooter" McLean, who was one of the fastest halfbacks in football when he was performing with the Chicago Bears. He is now in his seventh year with the Packers and was the only holdover coach signed by Green Bay when Lisle Blackbourn took over as head coach. His playing career with the Bears was over a span of eight years during which time the Bears came through with four championship teams. Prior to joining the Packers, McLean was head coach at Lewis College in Lockport, Illinois, from 1948 to 1950. Born in Lowell, Mass. on December 6, 1915, he was a Little All-American halfback at St. Anselm's College in Manchester, New Hampshire. He also competed in track, hockey and baseball at St. Anselm's. He is married and has a son and a daughter.

LOU RYMKUS — Assistant Coach

Six seasons of championship play with the Cleveland Browns left a mark on the Packers' line coach, Lou Rymkus, and the Packer forward wall is now getting the benefit of experience from one of the NFL's all-time great tackles. Rymkus joined the Browns in 1946 and was All-Pro tackle for four of the six seasons. Before that he was a member of Frank Leahy's first Notre Dame team which went through the 1941 season unbeaten. After leaving Notre Dame, he played a year of pro football with the Washington Redskins and helped them capture the Eastern Division title in 1943. While serving in the Navy he played on Bainbridge Naval Training Station's unbeaten eleven. He joined the Browns after his stint with the Navy. Retiring from the Browns in 1951 he line-coached the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian League for two seasons before joining the Packers in 1954. Born in Royalton, Illinois, he is married and the father of twin sons, Pat and Mike.

LOU RYMKUS

JACK MORTON

JACK MORTON

Assistant Coach

When a coaching vacancy developed in the Packer staff with the resignation of defensive line coach Earl Klapstein, Blackbourn wasted no time in appointing Jack Morton, a promising young coach, to fill the vacancy. The former All-Big Six end from Missouri University played professional football with the Los Angeles Dons in 1946 and with the Buffalo Bills during the 1947 and 1948 seasons. Morton will coordinate the play of the defensive line and linebackers. His coaching experience includes two years (1951-1952) at Maryland Heights High School in Missouri, line coach at DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana (1952-1955), and head coach at Toledo University, Toledo, Ohio (1956-1957). Morton has recently written an article on "Rule Blocking" to be published soon in the Scholastic Coach.

JACK VAINISI

JACK VAINISI — Talent Scout

Talent Scouting has developed into a year-around job and the Packers are particularly well fortified in this department with Jack Vainisi in charge. Vainisi is starting his eighth year with Green Bay. He played football as a freshman at Notre Dame in 1945 under Coach Hugh DeVore, a former Packer assistant coach. In 1946 he went into the Army and was named to the Stars and Stripes All-Service team. An illness cut short his Army and football career and he went back to Notre Dame, finishing there in 1950. A product of St. George High School in Evanston, Illinois, Vainisi is married and has two daughters.

CARL "Bud" JORGENSEN — Trainer

The oldest Packer in point of service and one of the nation's top trainers is Carl "Bud" Jorgensen, starting his 34th year with the Packers. "Bud" started with the Packers in 1924 as manager of equipment when he was 16 years of age. In the meantime, he studied training methods and when Dave Woodward died in 1940, Jorgensen was appointed as chief trainer. Since that time he has administered to all of the Packers' training needs and now rates as one of the best in college and professional circles. During the off-season he travels for a Green Bay Sporting Goods firm.
